PLANNING CHECKLIST

This checklist guides you on how to listen to children and young people and involve them in decision-making when you are developing policies, plans, services, programmes, governance, research and legislation at national, local and organisational level.

You should inform children and young people that they have the right to a voice in decision-making and that you will take their views seriously.

SPACE

- How will you ensure that children and young people (CYP) are involved as early as possible?
- How will their involvement be sustained?
- How will those who are directly affected by the topic be involved?
- What steps will be taken to ensure the process is inclusive and accessible?
- How will they be supported to feel comfortable expressing themselves?
- What support will be provided to those who become anxious, upset or uncomfortable?

VOICE

- Have you made a list of the topics on which you want to hear the views of CYP?
- How will you ensure that the key focus of the process stays on topic?
- How will they know that participation is voluntary and that they can withdraw at any time?
- How will they be supported to feel comfortable expressing themselves?
- What support will be provided to those who become anxious, upset or uncomfortable?

INFLUENCE

- How will CYP be informed about the scope they have (including limitations) to influence decision-making?
- How will they be given age-appropriate and accessible feedback at key points?
- What are your plans to make sure that children and young people’s views impact on decisions?
- How will they be given age-appropriate and accessible feedback explaining how their views were used and the reasons for the decisions taken, in a timely manner?
- How will you ensure that they are given opportunities to evaluate the process throughout?

AUDIENCE

- How will CYP know to whom, how and when their views will be communicated?
- How will you show your commitment to being influenced by their views?
- How will you identify and involve relevant decision-makers?
- How and when will a record and a child or youth friendly summary of their views be compiled?
- How will you ensure that they are given an opportunity to confirm that their views are accurately recorded?
- What plans are in place to support them to communicate their own views?
This checklist is a guide for the self-evaluation and external evaluation of policies, plans, services, programmes, governance, research and legislation at national, local and organisational level.

EVALUATION CHECKLIST

• How did you ensure that children and young people (CYP) were involved as early as possible?
• How was their involvement sustained?
• How were those who are directly affected by the topic involved?
• What steps were taken to ensure the process was inclusive and accessible?
• How were they supported to feel safe expressing themselves?
• What support was provided to those who became anxious, upset or uncomfortable?

• Did you make a clear list of the topics on you want to hear the views of children and young people?
• How did you ensure that the key focus of the process stayed on the topics you identified?
• How did they know that participation was voluntary and they could withdraw at any time?
• How did you support them to give their own views, while including age-appropriate and accessible information?
• How did you ensure that they were given a range of ways to express themselves that best suited their needs and choices?
• How did the process allow them to identify topics they wanted to discuss?

• How did CYP informed about the scope they have (including limitations) to influence decision-making?
• How were they given age-appropriate and accessible feedback at key points?
• What did you do with their views?
• How were they given age-appropriate and accessible feedback explaining how their views were used and the reasons for the decisions taken, in a timely manner?
• How did you ensure that they were given opportunities to evaluate the process throughout?

• How did children and young people know to whom, how and when their views would be communicated?
• How did you show that you were committed to being influenced by their views?
• How did you identify and involve relevant decision-makers?
• How and when was a record and a child or youth-friendly summary of their views compiled?
• How did you ensure that they were given an opportunity to confirm that their views were accurately recorded?
• What plans were put in place to support CYP to play a role in communicating their own views?

Adapted from the Government of Ireland’s National Framework for Children and Young People’s Participation in Decision-making
EVERYDAY SPACES CHECKLIST

This checklist is designed as a guide to help you ensure that children and young people have a voice in decision-making. It can be applied in many everyday situations including in classrooms, hospitals, childcare settings, child and youth services, youth and sports clubs, youth projects, arts and creative initiatives and other spaces.

Please do not use this checklist for developing policies, plans, services, programmes, governance, research and legislation – use the Planning Checklist. Please make sure that the ways you involve children and young people in decision-making are age-appropriate and accessible for all, whether in person or online.

Adapted from the Government of Ireland’s National Framework for Children and Young People’s Participation in Decision-making